

What connects robots, diabetes and the stock exchange? What subject will allow you to work in aeronautics, automotive, industrial processes and medical technology?

Control Engineering or Control for short is an engineering discipline that moves technical, economic and biological systems!

Interested to learn more? Register!

To register contact:
girls.in.control.english@gmail.com

@_girls_in_control_